Day 1 - See London from Land and Sea

Welcome to London - the capital of the United Kingdom! This morning you'll experience London's highest viewing platform at The Shard, this building is a 95-story skyscraper, designed by the Italian architect Renzo Piano. You will enjoy a glass of champagne as you soak in the magnificent views of London. Afterward enjoy time at leisure in borough market, this is located only 5 minutes' walk from the Shard. The afternoon will be spent cruising along the Thames whilst you enjoy an Afternoon Tea Cruise with City Cruises. See some of the best views in London whilst enjoying scones and all the trimming of a traditional afternoon tea.

This evening you'll enjoy the theatrical delights of one of London's Musicals. Whether this is your first musical or you're on a regular theatre-goer you'll be captivated by the performances of the West-End. Upon conclusion you'll be taken to your hotel, you'll be staying at the Novotel London Brentford for the next two nights. This hotel is located in West London, only a 5 minute drive from Kew Gardens.

Day 2 - A Royal Day Out

Today you're going to visit Kensington Palace, Kensington Palace is a royal residence set in Kensington Gardens. Here you will make your way through the State Rooms and explore the birthplace of Queen Victoria and the last reigning monarch that lived in Kensington Palace, King George II. Currently 'Diana: Designing for a Princess' is at Kensington Palace, you will see the evolution of Diana, Princess of Wales. A piece from Diana's wardrobe accompanies original sketches created for her, you will even see some of Diana's handwritten comments.

Next you'll experience Windsor Castle in all its glory. Windsor Castle is the oldest and largest occupied castle in the world, as you wonder through you'll see the State Apartments and Semi-State Rooms, St. George's Chapel and the changing of the guards takes place regularly. It has since been the home of 39 monarchs, still today The Queen spends her private weekends at the Castle.

Tonight you'll enjoy a traditional pub dinner, afterwards you'll return to the hotel for a relaxing evening at leisure.
