Day 1 - Historic Greenwich

Welcome to London - the capital of the United Kingdom! This morning you'll be visiting The Cutty Sark in Greenwich, this historic sailing ship was the fastest of its time, now it's an award-winning visitor attraction. Whilst on-board you'll have the opportunity to explore the ship, take the helm, walk beneath the hull and even meet the crew. Once you've thoroughly enjoyed being aboard the Cutty Sark, only moments away is the Royal Observatory, here you'll find out how the Royal Observatory became the home of Greenwich Mean Time (GMT). Here lies the Prime Meridian of the world, this is where East meets West, stand either side of this line and you'll be in two hemispheres at one time. Following your visit you'll have a traditional pub lunch and return to central London via the Thames Clipper. Take in London's most popular sights from the river including the O2, the London Eye, the Tower of London and St. Paul's Cathedral. The remainder of the afternoon will be spent at leisure. In the evening you'll enjoy the theatrical delights of one of London's Musicals. Whether this is your first musical or you're on a regular theatre-goer you'll be captivated by the performances of the West-End. You'll be staying at the Novotel London Brentford for the next two nights, this hotel is located in West London, only a 5 minute drive from Kew Gardens.
